

Calling all food growers to learn from each other as we navigate a changing climate!

Join us for our Grower-2-Grower series of farm and food-garden tours, each one followed by a potluck dinner.

We will be touring a diversity of food growing spaces on Pender, while sharing successes and lessons learned.

Food, Farms, Friends!

Tours will run from July through October.

Details of each will be sent out a week or two ahead of time.

First Tour: Sunday July 16th

4pm - 5:30pm tour, followed by potluck dinner.

Hosts: Karin Campbell and Micha Rogg - Middle Path Farm

Address: 5415 Hooson Road, North Pender (see parking instructions below)

Tour Highlights:

- winter vegetable plantings
- native plant nursery
- managing drought
- seed collection and storage
- Pender Seed Library (please bring seeds to share if you have them!)

Parking Info - since there is very little onsite parking, please:

- carpool if possible
- drop off your passengers at the farm-gate
- then park your vehicle back at the mailbox at the start of Hooson Rd
- Roz will pick you up from there in her van and drive you to the farm for a 4pm start.

What to Bring

- potluck dish to share (if you can, otherwise just come!)
- a chair or blanket
- utensils, water, your comforts for outdoor dining.

Second Tour: Thursday August 10th

5pm tour, followed by potluck dinner

Hosts: Dag and Elina Falck - Long Story Farm

Tour Highlights:

This is a 14-acre property on South Pender with a diverse mix of organic vegetables and fruit trees; large pond; forest; and a solar farm. More details to follow.

Other island tours to be announced, and conversations on these tours can cover just about anything, e.g. water catchment, native plants, cover crops, etc. For more details contact info@gulfislandsfoodco-op.org
